

Sarajevo, 21 March 2022

QUESTIONS and ANSWERS for
Design and development of website with visual identity solution

Reference number NO001 03/2022

1. Can centers for education, non-governmental organizations, crafts, etc. apply for the Public Call for Offers?

Offerors should be legal entities registered in Bosnia and Herzegovina that have the following activities in their founding acts: web and graphic design, marketing, event management and other related activities.

2. Can applicants submit their offers for various thematic content creation under this Public Call for Offers, including the fees for the content authors?

The SMART Balkans – Civil Society for Shared Society in the Western Balkans website will contain project-related activities, news, and information. The SMART Balkans – Civil Society for Shared Society in the Western Balkans project team will oversee the coordination and drafting of the content for the project that will encompass a variety of topics within the two groups of project themes: Security and Stability and Governance. No fees for the content authors have been anticipated by the project.

3. What entity is the owner of the website after the project ends?

The website's owner is Center for Civil Society Promotion (CPCD).

Best regards,

SMART Balkans – Civil Society for Shared Society in the Western Balkans Project Team